PRESS RELEASE

6/24/21

VISALIA MAN CONVICTED OF MOLESTING SIX CHILDREN

Today in Department 14 of the Tulare County Superior Court, a jury convicted Oracio Reyes, 37, of fifteen counts of lewd act on a child under fourteen years old, and three counts of oral copulation on a child ten years of age or younger. Each count is a felony.

The crimes occurred from 2006 to 2016 against six minor female victims ages 6 to 13-years-old. Each of the crimes were committed in Tulare County.

Sentencing is scheduled for August 10, 2021, in Superior Court where Reyes faces 340 years-to-life in state prison.

The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Kelly Habroun of the Crimes against Children Division and was investigated by Detective Henry Martinez of the Visalia Police Department.
